

THE PACIFIC
Commercial Advertiser

IS PUBLISHED
Every Saturday Morning.
City and Island Subscriptions, $6.00 a Year.
Foreign Subscriptions, $8.00 a Year.

Subscription price for papers forwarded to any part of America or $5.00 per annum, which includes the American and Hawaiian postage. All papers for European ports will be charged the postage of one dollar plus postage, which varies from 4 to 8 cents on each single paper.

"ALL SENTRIES PAYABLE ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

"COMMUNICATIONS FROM all parts of the Pacific will always be very welcome.

PLAIN AND FANCY BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

FOR WRITING BUSINESS AND ADDRESS CARDS printed on a "Yankee Card Press," in the highest style of the art.

Commercial Advertiser,

HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE.

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, July 5.

The Assembly met at the usual hour.

Mr. Kanaloa introduced a resolution that the Enrollment Committee be requested to report all bills that His Majesty has signed before the prorogation of the Assembly.

The Vice President said that the bills were ready to be reported. Yesterday, but the Assembly adjourned so early that the Gavel was never struck, and on motion of Mr. Kanaloa, the bill passed its first reading.

On motion House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the reports on His Majesty's messages, being the unfinished business of yesterday, and Mr. Aloalo was called to the Chair.

Reports read throughout.

M. Smith moved that the majority report be adopted.

Mr. Kiholeka recommended us an amendment to lay both reports upon the table, and that it should for two years be inserted for each of the Cabinet Ministers in the Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Hart was in favor of $6,000.

Mr. Kanaloa said he didn't know which way to vote.

Mr. Boyd said he was in favor of the majority report, and as a member of the Committee had signed it for good and sufficient reasons.

Mr. Hart thought the present salaries received by the Cabinet were sufficient.

Mr. Kiholeka favored the same opinion, that the rules be suspended.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow time to introduce a bill relative to increasing the salaries of the Supreme Justices, to be taken up with the more speed by His Majesty, in regard to his Ministers' salaries.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

Mr. Kanaloa moved that both reports be received.

Mr. Davis moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to report all bills that His Majesty had been pleased to sign.

On motion the House proceeded to the order of the day.

The Assembly took up the majority and minority reports of the Committee in which was referred His Majesty's message. The reports were referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. Hart moved to adopt the majority report.

</div